"Experience you can trust"

O'Brien Palmer is a specialist practice that has been providing personal insolvency, corporate insolvency and business recovery services since 1996.

Experience you can trust

The key to avoiding financial disaster is obtaining the right advice in a timely manner. Our experience over many years has proved that survival prospects are increased and losses minimised if action is taken when the warning signs first appear. Swift, decisive action by our skilled and trusted team of professionals is crucial to a successful outcome.

As a result of our vast experience in most industry sectors, we are able to quickly identify problems and then structure innovative, commercial and practical solutions to those problems.

A relationship you can rely upon

O'Brien Palmer has an enviable reputation for technical competence and an uncompromising attitude to independence and ethical standards. We adopt a "hands on" approach ensuring that the Partner working on your matter is active in the administration and is accessible to all stakeholders. This approach helps develop trust and confidence in the relationship. We are committed to providing you with the best possible service at a realistic cost with the aim of maximising the return to stakeholders.
